Welcome & Introductions – Judge/Executive, Steve Pendery

Judge/Executive, Steve Pendery started the Campbell County Mayor's Meeting at 6:00 PM, and asked everyone present to introduce themselves.

Campbell County Animal Services Lisa Krummen, Director

Campbell County Animal Services Director, Lisa Krummen said their mission is to safeguard public health and safety while promoting responsible pet ownership, to provide humane sheltering and care for animals, to protect the community's animals from abuse and neglect, and to end euthanasia of healthy, adoptable animals. Animal Control Services provides services for unincorporated Campbell County and has an Interlocal Agreement to provide services for the cities of Bellevue, Cold Spring, Fort Thomas, Highland Heights, Melbourne, Silver Grove, Southgate, and Wilder. The Shelter serves as the animal housing facility for all of Campbell County. The other topics Director Krummen covered included: cat and dog sheltering, staff training, animal welfare, the barn cat program, animal adoption, dog licensing, volunteer opportunities, and the trap, neuter, return (TNR) program which has had above a 90% live release rate since 2016.

Campbell County Public Library Chantelle Phillips, Library Director

Campbell County Public Library Director, Chantelle Phillips said the library's mission is to enhance lifelong learning by providing popular materials, programs, and services to the community. Director Phillips discussed information available on the Campbell County Public Library's website and did a live demonstration on how to navigate the website and where to find information. She said one of the library's main focuses is to offer a variety of programs and classes for different interest groups, age ranges, and families.

Campbell Media Jennifer Teipel, Executive Director

Campbell Media Executive Director, Jennifer Teipel explained that Campbell Media is the local community access center and is dedicated to adapting to meet the evolving needs of the community. They offer extensive coverage of: government meetings, community events, local sports, music, preserving the stories of veterans, and fostering education opportunities by working closely with school groups and local organizations. Campbell Media's content is accessible on cable channels, the Campbell Media website, Roku, Apple TV, and Fire TV. Other topics Director Teipel covered included: training and resources for community members and nonprofit organizations to create their own video content, internships, facilities and equipment, and civic involvement.
