He stated that the Fiscal Court passed Resolution R-151-07 on January 9, 2008 thereby establishing a policy for the acceptance of certain existing roads in the County-Maintained Road System. It has come to the attention of the Fiscal Court that the cost of improving some roads would exceed $10,000 per property owner making it difficult for some property owners to repay such an amount within five years. In the case of Charlotte and Kremer Drives, the property owner would incur $11,589.00 for the cost of improvements. He requested that Mr. Seibert review the increased expenditure reporting his findings to Court members.
